On 03/08/12 at approximately 0907 hrs, I was sitting stationary in the median of Interstate [REDACTED] observing the flow of southbound traffic. I observed a blue Chevrolet Malibu approaching my location in the middle lane. I noticed the vehicle was traveling at a speed slower than that of normal traffic. As the vehicle passed my location, I noticed the driver was holding the steering wheel in a 10-2 position in a very stiff manner. I noticed the vehicle had a black tag frame which obscured the state. I pulled out on the vehicle. As I got closer to the vehicle, I observed it cross over the dividing line between the middle and slow lanes of travel. The vehicle did not change lanes, but moved back into the middle lane. I initiated a traffic stop on the vehicle for the violations of [REDACTED]. I approached the vehicle from the passenger side. The driver had a slight delay in lowering the passenger window. When the window came down, I immediately smelled a strong odor of raw Marijuana coming from the interior of the vehicle. I greeted the driver and advised him the reason for the stop. I asked the driver for his license. He got his wallet and retrieved two forms of identification from it. The first was his Illinois license, showing him to be [REDACTED]. The second was a Chicago Police Officer identification. I asked the driver to step to the rear of the vehicle to speak to me. I asked him if he had any kind of weapons on him. He stated that he had his sidearm on him. I asked him where it was and he motioned toward his right side. I pulled up his shirt and observed a weapon on his right side stuffed inside his pants. I told [REDACTED] that I was going to take the weapon for now. I placed the weapon inside my patrol car and secured the door. I had [REDACTED] step to the front of my Tahoe. I told him that I smelled Marijuana coming from the interior of the vehicle. [REDACTED] began following me toward my passenger door and I told him a second time to step to the front of my Tahoe. [REDACTED] did comply after the second order. I asked him if there was any reason I smelled Marijuana coming from the vehicle. He stated his buddy may have had a hitter earlier. I had [REDACTED] turn around and I placed him into cuffs. I explained to him that he wasn't being arrested, but was being detained due to the odor of Marijuana coming from the vehicle. I then asked the passenger to exit the vehicle. As he got out of the car, I observed a hitter (small metallic tube) fall from his person onto the shoulder. I had the passenger place his hand upon the vehicle as I parted him down for weapons. I placed the passenger into cuffs. I asked him if there was any Marijuana inside the vehicle. He stated that it was in the garbage bag. He stated it was in a cigarette pack. I located the passenger's ID in his wallet. It showed him to be [REDACTED], out of Illinois. I placed [REDACTED] into the prisoner transport area of my Tahoe. I then asked Mr. [REDACTED] if he was a cop. He stated yes. I asked him if he lets people smoke Marijuana around him. He stated that he didn't know he had it with him. This was contradicting to his original statement that he thought his buddy had a hitter earlier. I asked him how long he had been a cop and he stated a couple of years. I asked him if he had ever smelled Marijuana. He stated that he had. I told him that I walked up to the car and smelled it. He stated he didn't know his friend had brought it with him. I asked him how he could not. I told him that I was being realistic with him. I told him that if I could smell it that strong as soon as I got up there. I asked him if he smoked weed and he said no. I asked him if he was around Marijuana all the time or around friends who smoke it every time. He said no. I told him that his nose should be pretty good at smelling it then. He agreed. I then went to the vehicle and retrieved the hitter laying on the shoulder. I reached for the garbage bag that [REDACTED] stated held the Marijuana. I located a cigarette pack in the garbage bag. I opened the pack and observed two small bags of Marijuana. I placed the evidence into an evidence bag. I then Mirandized [REDACTED]. He stated that he understood his rights and agreed to speak to me without having a lawyer present. He stated that the Marijuana I had located belonged to him. I asked him if there was any more Marijuana in the car and he said no. I asked him if there was any large amounts of cash in the car and he said no. I then asked [REDACTED] if there was any more Marijuana in the car. He stated not that he was aware of. I asked him if there was any large amounts of cash in the car and he said not that he was aware of. He then stated that it wasn't his car. He stated the vehicle belonged to [REDACTED]. A search of the trunk turned up two golf bags. One bag was blue and another was black. I opened up a pocket on the black bag and noticed aluminum foil. The aluminum foil appeared to have something concealed inside of it. I opened it up and noticed a small vacuum sealed bag of Marijuana. Mr. [REDACTED] stated the blue golf bag was his. I asked [REDACTED] which bag was his and he stated the one I pulled the Marijuana out of. I searched the remainder of the vehicle and did not locate any more narcotics. I asked [REDACTED] how his department felt about him hanging out with someone who smoked Marijuana. I told him I searched the car and find Marijuana all in it. He stated that he didn't search the car before they left. I then told him he should have still smelled it. He then stated, "Yeah, I did". This is contradictory again to his statement that he didn't smell anything when he got into the car. He followed the comment up with "I didn't know he still did it". I issued [REDACTED] a citation for the Marijuana, due to it being below an ounce. Mr. [REDACTED] signed the citation and was released. [REDACTED] was released without any charges.
